

Commitment Contract

Being a practicing Free Agent is one of the most exciting and liberating things that anyone can experience. Yet...

It's not for anyone. Like anything worth having, there are sacrifices that we all need to make for this level of freedom and fulfillment. And, while anyone could do it, everyone isn't always willing to commit to doing what's necessary.

It takes a deep-rooted commitment – a commitment to the process, a commitment to do the work, and most of all, a commitment to yourself and your dreams.

BUT . . . If you are willing to put in the effort, work smart, and be relentless in your pursuit of a successful career, successful business, and successful life, then the rewards are plentiful.

This means . . . YOU are special. Your specialness lies, not only in the talents and gifts that you share with the world but in your willingness to commit to a bigger brighter future.

At the Free Agent Collective, we recognize your specialness, and we want to do everything we can to support you in it.

It will take a commitment from all of us to continually show up with the same level of energy, enthusiasm, and stick-to-it-ness.... We will be more successful, together.

The Free Agent Collective is 100% committed to helping you get results.

We know that the faster you get those results, the more momentum you have on your side. And the more momentum you have on your side, the more successful your career, business – and life -- is going to be. THAT is where our commitment is to you — helping you develop that momentum and grow your success as a committed Free Agent.

We Operate Under the Cone of Silence. By joining The Free Agent Collective, I acknowledge that I am joining a community where our individual and community confidentiality is integral in establishing a safe environment where we are comfortable and secure sharing our highs, lows, fears and dreams -- and truly encouraging each other.

I commit to our confidentiality:

- ✓ Everything that is shared by me and others in our Community is confidential and I will treat it as such. I will never share anything I hear in the Community with anyone not in the Community, without the express permission of the person or persons who shared the information with me and of anyone else in the Community impacted by the information.

- ✓ If I learn anything that could advantage my position or disadvantage the position of another Community member, I will speak up and let them know immediately. And together we'll work out how to deal with that specific situation.

Free Agent Success Creed. By joining The Free Agent Collective, I acknowledge that I am committed to my success and whatever I can do to contribute to the success of the community.

I commit to the process:

- ✓ I will make my membership a priority because I am committed to my success and to the people whom I choose to engage and work with and to the difference that I want to make in my career, in my community, and in the world.
- ✓ I will try things that may not feel comfortable because I know that even if I fail, it will lead to learning that contributes to my progress.
- ✓ I will do my best to keep moving forward and reach out to this community when I feel stuck.
- ✓ I will use the available resources and the online training course as tools to support my learning and my progress. I will not use them as “must complete first” excuses to block my progress and slow my momentum.

I commit to myself:

- ✓ I promise myself to be consistently faithful to the pursuit of my dreams.
- ✓ I know I will get the most from my community experience if I contribute honestly and take action on what I learn.
- ✓ I will do my best to identify and eliminate any self-limiting beliefs that may arise; I believe in my ability to achieve business growth, increased influence, financial security and abundance.
- ✓ I wholeheartedly embrace the fact that my results are dependent upon me and the depth of my commitment. I will not blame others for my lack of progress.

I commit to our “more successful together” community:

- ✓ I will be open and honest regarding my successes, struggles, and fears.
- ✓ I promise to be a source of encouragement and support for all of my fellow community members.
- ✓ I will have an abundance mindset and offer value to fellow community members wherever possible.
- ✓ I will protect our community culture by respecting others, practicing compassion, and remembering to have fun.

In short, I have read this document. I realize that I am responsible for my own destiny, and I am fully committed to the process, to the Free Agent Collective community, and to myself.

I'm excited to get it going! Let's do this!!!
